

Privacy

At Piepeople, we believe that you should be able to control the personal information you give us over the Internet, make sure it is accurate, and not have your personal information used for objectionable purposes. The guidelines we use to protect the information you provide us during a visit to our Internet sites is as follows

Protection of Personal Information

We will not sell your personal information to third parties as part of a mailing list or otherwise. It is our policy to use the personal information you give us via the Internet only to maintain and improve your relationship with us. We will take reasonable precautions to protect your personal information from loss, misuse and alteration

We make reasonable efforts to see that the personal information we maintain is accurate, complete and timely for the information's intended use. If you wish to verify or correct any material personal information, please send an e-mail message to info@Piepeople.com and detail any changes or corrections you would like us to make.

If you have supplied us with personal information and have not requested otherwise, we may include your information in our marketing contact database. If so, you may receive occasional communications from us. We will make reasonable efforts to remove you from our marketing contact database at any time upon your request. To do so, please send a request to info@Piepeople.com and provide your name and e-mail and / or postal address and describe the nature of the communication you have received

Your Rights

The protection of personal data in the digital era is a new challenge. Mistakes and miscommunication are always possible. If you believe we have misused or failed to adequately protect your personal information, please contact us at info@Piepeople.com